

Careers in Healthcare: A guide to working in the Independent Healthcare Sector

Independent Healthcare Advisory Services (IHAS) and Skills for Health Partnership Launch Event

February 10th 2010 at 13.30
Draycott Education Centre, 100 Sydney Street, London, SW3 6NJ
Followed by drinks and canapés from 16.00 to 17.00
The event is free of charge

“Careers in Healthcare: A guide to working in Independent Healthcare Sector” has been produced by the IHAS and Skills for Health working in partnership.

This unique launch event will cover:

- developing a well educated workforce, fit for purpose and responsive to service needs
- career pathways in the independent sector
- diversity in the independent sector workforce
- partnership working – the NHS and the independent sector

The programme includes presentations from key people in Workforce and Education including:

- Brian Payne, Executive Director Strategy, Skills for Health
- David Foster, Deputy CNO, England, who is leading on Nursing and Midwifery Workforce Education Issues for the Department of Health
- Colin Boakes, Director Chandelier Healthcare Consulting Ltd (formerly HCA International)

As well as presentations from IHAS members illustrating personal development and career opportunity

To confirm your place or for more information, contact Margaret Atkins, Margaret Atkins Communications, Tel: 01732 746644/07831 501696, Fax: 01622 331133 email: margaretatkins@macomms.co.uk.

To be sure of your free place please make your confirmation by Friday January 29 2010.