

The Skills for Health brand what do people think?

We recently asked people what they thought of Skills for Health as an organisation. Here is what they had to say...

Respondent Characteristics

Health providers/employers

Education and training providers

Social care providers

Public sector organisations

Private sector

Third
sector

Perception of Skills for Health

80% of respondents said they would recommend Skills for Health to others

73% said that Skills for Health is the voice of employers

86% said they would use Skills for Health again in the future

The most popular word to describe Skills for Health was Knowledgeable with 79%. This was closely followed by trustworthy.

50% of respondents didn't know Skills for Health is a not-for-profit organisation

Skills for Health's current services

E-learning draws the highest level of interest with 78% of respondents agreeing they would be likely to purchase

Other popular services include:

Workforce Development & Consultancy

Service and Role Re-design

National Occupational Standards

Medical Rostering

To find out more about Skills for Health and join our mailing list, visit www.skillsforhealth.org.uk

You can also find us on:

facebook.com/
skillsforhealth

Or tweet us at @skillsforhealth