

The Care Certificate Standards

What is the Care Certificate?

The Care Certificate is an identified set of standards that health and social care workers adhere to in their daily working life. Designed with the non-regulated workforce¹ in mind, the Care Certificate gives everyone the confidence that these workers have the same introductory skills, knowledge and behaviours to provide compassionate, safe and high quality care and support.

Regulated staff (e.g. Doctors, Nurses, Social Workers, Occupational Therapists) gain similar skills and knowledge within their professional training so they do not need to also achieve the Care Certificate.

The Care Certificate:

- applies across health and social care;
- links to competences (National Occupational Standards) and units in qualifications;
- covers what is required to be caring;
- will equip workers with the fundamental skill they need to provide quality care; and
- gives them a basis from which they can further develop your knowledge and skills as their career progresses.

What are the standards?

The 15 standards in the Care Certificate are:

- 1. Understand your role
- 2. Your personal development
- 3. Duty of care
- 4. Equality and diversity
- 5. Work in a person centred way
- 6. Communication
- 7. Privacy and dignity
- 8. Fluids and nutrition
- 9. Awareness of mental health, dementia and learning disability
- 10. Safeguarding adults
- 11. Safeguarding Children
- 12. Basic Life Support
- 13. Health and Safety
- 14. Handling information
- 15. Infection prevention and control

Full details of each standard will be covered in the following pages.

In Health roles may include: Assistant Practitioner, Care Assistant, Healthcare Support Worker, Maternity Support Worker, Nursing Assistant, Occupational Therapy Assistant, Physiotherapy Assistant, Radiography Assistant, Speech and Language Therapy Assistant, Senior Care Assistant. Glossary of Terms

ABUSE: Abuse may be physical, sexual, emotional or psychological. It may be related to a person's age, race, gender, sexuality, culture or religion and may be financial, institutional in nature. It includes both selfneglect and neglect by others.

ACTIVE PARTICIPATION: Active participation is a way of working that recognises an individual's right to participate in the activities and relationships of everyday life as independently as possible. The individual is regarded as an active partner in their own care or support, rather than as a passive recipient. Ways to support active participation may include assistive technology, for example use of electronic or other devices. Adult Social Care Workers should refer to Common Core Principles to Support Self Care, principle 6 (www.skillsforcare.org.uk/selfcare). Healthcare Support Workers should refer to the Essence of Care Department of Health Publication (2010).

ADVICE AND SUPPORT: Advice and support can come from within or outside of your organisation and may include raising any concerns you may have.

AGREED WAYS OF WORKING: This refers to company policies and procedures. This includes those less formally documented by individual employers and the self-employed or formal policies such as the Dignity Code, Essence of Care and Compassion in Practice.

AT WORK: The definition of "at work" may include within the home of the individual you are supporting.

BARRIERS: These can include barriers of culture, gender, religion, language, literacy, health issues, disability, sensory or physical impairment.

CARE AND SUPPORT: Care and support enables people to do the everyday things like getting out of bed, dressed and into work; cooking meals; seeing friends; caring for our families; and being part of our communities. It might include emotional support at a time of difficulty or stress, or helping people who are caring for a family member or friend. It can mean support from community groups or networks: for example, giving others a lift to a social event. It might also include state-funded support, such as information and advice, support for carers, housing support, disability benefits and adult social care.

CLINICAL WASTE: This includes "sharps," such as needles, bodily fluids and used dressings.

COMMUNICATION: This includes verbal and nonverbal communication such as signs, symbols, pictures, writing, objects of reference, human and technical aids, eye contact, body language and touch. Communication may take place face to face, by telephone, email, text, via social networks, written reports and letters.

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT: This is the way in which a worker continues to learn and develop throughout their careers, keeping their skills and knowledge up to date and ensuring they can work safely and effectively.

DILEMMA: A difficult situation or problem.

DIVERSITY: celebrating differences and valuing everyone. Diversity encompasses visible and nonvisible individual differences and is about respecting those differences.

DUTY OF CARE: Your duty of care means that you must aim to provide high quality care to the best of your ability and say if there are any reasons why you may be unable to do so.

EQUALITY: being equal in status, rights, and opportunities.

FUNCTIONAL LEVEL: The essential elements of literacy, numeracy and communication skills you need to perform your work confidently and effectively.

HANDLING COMMENTS AND COMPLAINTS: This includes recording them.

HARM: Harm includes ill treatment (including sexual abuse, exploitation and forms of ill treatment which are not physical); the impairment of health (physical or mental) or development (physical, intellectual, emotional, social or behavioural); self-harm and neglect; unlawful conduct which adversely affects a person's property, rights or interests (for example, financial abuse).

HEALTH AND SAFETY: This could be in relation to the safety of yourself, your colleagues or the people you support.
