Dear Nanette,

Anglia Ruskin University is the largest provider of healthcare programmes in the East of England with campuses in Chelmsford, Cambridge and Peterborough.

The Faculty of Health, Social Care and Education (FHSCE) at Anglia Ruskin University supports the Level 3 Certificate in Bridging Skills for Higher Education as it provides health workers with the opportunity to develop the skills needed to succeed in a Higher Education environment.

The FHSCE at Anglia Ruskin University is prepared to consider applications from candidates with the following Bridging Programme:

- The Level 3 Certificate in Bridging Skills for Higher Education

We confirm that applicants meeting these requirements are eligible to apply for the following programmes:

- BSc (Hons) Adult Nursing
- BSc (Hons) Mental Health Nursing
- BSc (Hons) Children's Nursing
- BSc (Hons) Midwifery
- FdSc Nursing

Anglia Ruskin
University

Cambridge Chelmsford Peterborough

In addition to the Bridging Programme qualification, Anglia Ruskin University expect applicants to have achieved:

- 112 (Nursing), 120 (Midwifery), 80 (FdSc Nursing) UCAS Tariff points from a minimum of 2 A Levels (or equivalent).
- GCSE English, Science and Maths at grade 4 or above/ A*-C or equivalent.
- If English is not the applicant's first language a certificated level of proficiency of at least IELTS 7.0 (6.0 FdSc), (Academic level), or equivalent English Language qualification, as recognised by Anglia Ruskin University.

As part of our support for the Level 3 Certificate in Bridging Skills for Higher Education we give permission for this letter of support to be published on the Skills for Health website.

Yours sincerely
